

Transcript of E351/3326 held in the National Archives, Kew (unreadable or uncertain words in red)

Transcription by M J B Turner, Ampthill & District Archaeological and Local History Society Jan 2012 (updated 2017)

The Manor of Ampthill

Also paid for divers provisions bought and provided for the necessary reparations done in and upon the said house of Ampthill and for the wages of artificers labourers purveyor and clerk occupied and working upon the same as by the said books subscribed as before appearith viz in anno

Reign of Edward VI	Third	(1549)	33s 4d
	Fifth	(1551)	£68 3s 3d
			£69 16s 7d